Item 8.01. Other Events.

On September 3, 2008 and September 12, 2008, respectively, each of Michael C. Lukemire, Executive Vice President, Global Technology & Operations of The Scotts Miracle-Gro Company (the "Company"), and James Hagedorn, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, established a Rule 10b5-1 sales plan (each, a "Plan") with a broker pursuant to the requirements of Rule 10b5-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Each of Mr. Lukemire and Mr. Hagedorn has contracted with the broker to sell certain common shares of the Company underlying restricted common share awards which will vest during the month of October 2008. The Plans are intended to permit the executives to administer their financial planning in a pre-arranged manner which complies with federal securities laws. Neither Mr. Lukemire nor Mr. Hagedorn will have control over the price or timing of the sales of common shares of the Company under their respective Plans.

The common shares subject to Mr. Lukemire's Plan are those which will no longer be subject to restriction upon the vesting on October 12, 2008 of restricted common shares granted to Mr. Lukemire on October 12, 2005. Pursuant to the Plan, as many as 2,600 common shares of the Company underlying the restricted common share award may be sold between October 13, 2008 and October 15, 2008, at which time his Plan will terminate.

The common shares subject to Mr. Hagedorn's Plan are those which will no longer be subject to restriction upon the vesting on October 12, 2008 of restricted common shares granted to Mr. Hagedorn on October 12, 2005. Pursuant to the Plan, as many as 7,095 common shares of the Company underlying the restricted common share award may be sold between October 13, 2008 and October 20, 2008, at which time his Plan will terminate.

Specific sales transactions effected under the Plans will be reported by Messrs. Lukemire and Hagedorn through individual Rule 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as appropriate.
